“ Carl, you'll be greatly missed my friend. You were a great classmate, friend, and a wonderful person. Hillarious at times. But I was privileged to know a calm, focused, and serious side as well. A fellow musician and guitar player and a fellow member of our church. Rick and I usually was not far from you in school. My condolences to all the Thordarson family.
May God keep you my friend.

“ I was just remembering the time we went skiing in Colorado. There were a bunch of us; poor Carl didn't know how to ski. He was a trooper though; he kept at it and laughed at himself. We went down the mountain on green runs laughing the whole way. It sure took a long time!

Michael Swanson - October 19, 2018 at 02:41 PM

“ Carl was really one of the good guys. His high pitched laugh was real. I always had fun with him and I enjoyed how quick he was and how intelligent. I am so glad he was my friend. The last time I saw him was in Milwaukee at a concert. I would have liked to do that one more time. Man, we had some beers together over the years!

Michael Swanson - October 19, 2018 at 01:37 PM

“ Carl was such a wonderful guy and we have so many good memories of him during our time in Dallas. He was always trying to make people laugh especially the women on the admin staff. Rest in peace our friend... Tom & Dawn Givens

Dawn Givens - October 19, 2018 at 08:25 AM

“ Yes he was a fun guy to hangout with back in the day. We ran into each other at DEC training and went to Atlantic City one weekend, hit a casino, had a few beers, stopped in Manhattan on the way back and went to the top of the World Trade Center. He had funny stuff to talk about all the way down and back.

“ Carl was a fun college classmate, a great roommate, an intelligent co-worker, and the BEST Friend. He was always there when needed and good at listening. I remember Carl teaching my Parrot to drink from a can of beer.

“ Carl was a wonderful human being. Kind, funny, smart, witty and very deep. He was more than a friend he was a part of our family. He loved his family and his heritage! His sister Kay was always his go to person. We never thought we would not get the opportunity to laugh and share memories with Carl. But we are so grateful for the time, memories and happy thoughts we we're blessed to share. Carl use to live in Tyler and we lived in Kilgore. He would watch wheel of Fortune in Tyler which came on earlier then come to our house and solve every puzzle with just a few letters. LOL We were always amazed with his intelligence and sense of humor. We love you forever!

“ I spent many hours around the thordarson home growing up. Carl was smart, funny, and had a good heart. He would come up to Jim's tavern on veterans day, hand me money for a drink for any veteran that came in, and I couldn't let any of them know who bought it. You and your family will be in my thoughts and prayera RIP Carl

“ I enjoyed being around Carl through UMYF in high school. I remember on one youth retreat, realizing what a funny sense of humor he had. He was nice to be around. When my father died in 2009, Carl wrote the most thoughtful letter to our family about Dad. It was out of the blue, so well written and gave me such comfort. I pray fond memories, and the love of family and friends may give you comfort in your time grief. God bless you. Peace, Jackie Perry

“ So tragic to hear of this as Carl was a fine man. I will always remember the private conversation we shared the day of his older brother Paul's passing in 1981 to assuage our pain and grief. I hope they are together now and at peace. Aeternum vale

Brent Bogle - October 19, 2018 at 10:59 AM

“ I'm deeply saddened to hear of Carl's passing. I'm sure everyone still remember's the gag at graduation when Carl started his speech with an "admission" that he wasn't told to wear pants under the gown. We both later worked for DEC and even though we were in different offices hundreds of miles apart, Carl's reputation as a great engineer made it all the way from Dallas to KC. I wish the family God's healing and strength. Carl will surely be missed.
