Anna Bell and Harold were both co-workers of mine at the Davis County Hospital in the 60's & 70's. Both just the nicest, sweetest people. May your family draw strength and smiles from your precious memories of them. Praying that God will draw near to bring you peace and comfort.

“ Anna Bell was my half sister. As a young child I use to spend most summers on the farm with her, Harold and Karol. We had lots of good times together. She was like a second mother to me. I have never met a kinder and sweeter person. I will miss her very much. May she rest in peace. Nancy Crawford
