Tony is now resting in peace.
