

Billie Cruikshank

November 2, 2012

BLOOMFIELD: Billie Jacalyn Cruikshank, 58, of Bloomfield, Iowa died November 1, 2012 at her home. She was born June 18, 1954 in Kirksville, Missouri to Donald and Ethel Knaack Funk. She married Lowell Dean Cruikshank June 20, 1973 in Bloomfield, Iowa. She worked as a beautician, a CNA at area doctors' offices, and a homemaker. She volunteered at Hospice of Wapello and Davis Counties as well as the Lord's Cupboard in Bloomfield. Billie was a devoted mother and grandmother and enjoyed traveling with her family. She is survived by her husband; four daughters, Kerri (Pascal) Duffy of Chicago, Illinois, Kristi (Travis) Harris of Bloomfield, Jill (Nick) Ide of Gardner, Kansas, Jacki (Joe) Speer of Albia, Iowa; nine grandchildren, Baby Girl Duffy due in January, Triston and Hunter Harris, Nora, Audrey, and Mason Ide, Kolin, Kassi, and Kole Speer; a sister, Debra (Robert) Johnson of Bloomfield; and a brother, Don (Janean) Funk also of Bloomfield. She was preceded in death by her parents. Billie's wish was to be cremated. A private family memorial service will be held at a later date with Pastor Darrell Zook officiating. A memorial has been established to Good Samaritan Hospice and may be mailed to her husband at 24701 Nectarine Ave, Bloomfield, Iowa 52537.

Tribute Wall

“ Billie Cruikshank

January 28, 2023 at 10:57 AM