“ I spent some of the happiest times of my very young life living across the street from Waglers - and my Uncle Jay's Shell station - while my mom worked with my grandparents in their grocery store, and Dad was busy working everywhere and Homer and Blanche were like a second set of parents. For many, many years our parents remained friends...and I always enjoyed visiting Blanche when we would get to Iowa. Dennis, she adored you - and my heart is with you now. We were blessed with wonderful parents and a lifetime of good memories.

“ Dennis, I will miss your Mom. We had a wonderful time as I visited her over the years whenever I was close to Iowa City. I grew to adore Aunt Blanche when she was the lunch lady taking our tickets every day! From Katherine (Kathy Dunlavy) Schmidt.

Homer, Blanche & Dennis were such good neighbors to my great-grandparents, Gilford and Bessie Fleming. My parents became good friends with them when Homer and Dad both worked at the Bloomfield Post Office. May precious memories bring a smile to your face Dennis. My thoughts and prayers will be with you..... Carla Nalley Petersen
