“ I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with the entire family. Taking care of Bobby was a privilege. He always had a smile for me and always said oh there you are where have you been whenever he saw me. The day I was gifted with a hat by his sweet wife I was blown away by the sweet thought and gesture and we talked for a few minutes before which I will treasure because he was smiling and content in those precious few moments. He will be missed!

“ My memory of my uncle is one of how sweet he was, he smiled all the time, very family oriented. And that head of black hair! LOL so sweet! And even when I visited him at the Care Center after living away from here, he knew who I was and asked about my sisters. Rest In Peace sweet Uncle Bob.
