“ Aunt Carol, one of my favorites. Loved her happy face and the way she just brightened up when greeting you. Very loving and caring. When we were baling hay, harvesting oats or other full-day work at Aunt Carol and Uncle Glen's farm, she could really lay out a farmer's dinner. Loved her fried chicken and peach cobbler. At church meals, I would select only my mom's pie, or Aunt Carol's. At one time, I believed Aunt Carol invented Kool Aid, because I had never had it anywhere else. We will miss her, but very happy she was part of our lives for so long. Gene and Craig, we had the best moms ever.
