“ Dear Stuart, Kay, Connie, and Debbie.....I'm so sad to hear about your Mom 🙏. Bless her beautiful heart and soul. I loved her Christmas letters, I would laugh till I cried. Her famous cookbook should have been on the BEST SELLERS list. Not only for her best ever recipes but also the stories that she had written in the book. Chrissy had a heart of gold and she and your Dad passed that on as well as their wisdom and love to you kids. Knowing they are together again is a blessing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families 💕💕💕💕. I love you all. Alice (Henderson) and Pat Versluis.

“ Debbie, Connie, Kay, Stuart, & families, I loved Chrissy so much! I spent a lot of time at your house when Debbie and I ran around! Then later I spent a lot of time there while married to Reggie playing cards, enjoying meals, etc. I saw her a lot when I started working at the hospital as well! Chrissy was a sweetheart of a lady! Keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers!

“ Skeeter and Christine meant so much to me and my mom and dad. Living and growing up across the street from them they were like grandparents to me...I spent a lot of time there. She was a great lady and he was a great man. It's easy for us to take for granted the people that have an influence on our lives and a lot of the time we let the opportunity to tell them that pass. Hopefully we become good people to honor that influence. Mike Guiter

“ Christine was a lovely lady. I got to know her when her mother was in Long Term Care. My daughter, Nora use to go to her house and eat cookies. She was a wonderful cook. If you want to make something good, just go to Christine's cookbook. Memories are a great gift from God. May they bring comfort to you.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Chrissie certainly enjoyed life and having you girls so close was a real blessing to her. Every time I fix something from her cookbook I think of her sweet smile. She will never be gone because you have so many good memories in your heart. I won't be able to make it to the funeral but will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

Stuart, Connie, Debbie, and Kay I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. What a great lady she was. Alice Versluis is my neice and every year we would wait for her Christmas letter and then we would laugh at the things she said She was so good to my mom and Dad when they were in the nursing home in Bloomfield and they enjoyed her also., One time she came to Davenport and called me for lumbch. I met her and the other ladties she came with and we just laughed and laughed. I was your Dad's cousin and Glen and Fay Henderson's daughter Karen Henderson Guffey. Thinking of all of you.
