“ *I remember back to when Tom and I were stationed at Cherry Point, NC in the Marine Corps. I was so homesick, I wrote to everyone I had ever known back here. Cindy wrote me a letter, telling me that she and Mike had gone to Michigan to get married. Never will forget what she wrote in that letter. "I plan on taking very good care of your cousin, if he will let me." And, she DID take very good care of him these past 50 plus years. You were a good wife and mother, lady - I will miss you. "God's Love surrounds a heaven bound soul, so deeply and completely that it's felt back to the fold.

Tears fall as the memories become crystal clear, realizing how much that soul was so very dear.

When the missing becomes unbearable of the soul that we Love, you will hear God's whisper and feel God's touch."

Be at Peace!
