“ *Kirk and Greg ,
We wish to share our deepest sympathy and condolences to both of you and your families. Your father was a wonderful person and a good man. I will always remember times spent with him at the Troy Store and at ball games and the many times from pickup window on a gravel road. He was always smilin' and he always had time to share with me. May God Bless all of you and yours and comfort you at this time of loss.*

“ My deepest sympathy to you. My mother, Marian (Troutman) Scott Eaton, was Clair's first cousin. I remember many fun family gatherings, especially sitting around the kitchen booth/table in Stan and Mabel's kitchen. Clair was a wonderful person, (not that you need to be told that), always so kind, and a wonderful host, on the few occasions I had to stop by and visit him at his home in Troy. I regret that I am unable to join you in the celebration of his life.
