“ My Aunt Connie was a beautiful person, I can remember the first time I met her. We were at my Grandma Scott's house. She truly loved my Uncle Lowell. After my mom passed away, my Aunt Connie taught me how to make the dinner rolls that she learned how to make from my mother. Unfortunately I do not have the same results as they did. But my cousin Shawn knows how to make them. Another thing I remember so well is that Aunt Connie would not drink tea with sugar in it. We couldn't understand that for nothing, but today, I to hardly ever drink tea with sugar in it. another memory is when we were in the garden and she pulled an onion out of the ground, peeled off the first layer and bit into it like it was and apple. She brought a lot of laughter in our lives, playing cards with us and telling us the story of Uncle Lowell telling her he would just shoot himself because she didn't do something he wanted her to do. She said he went into the bedroom closet, took the gun and shot a hole in the floor, she didn't go check on him, he came out a few minutes later, saying gosh darn you didn't even come check on me. LOL I love my family to the moon and back and as much as I will miss her, I know she is in heaven with the rest of our family.
