“ *I lived next to Craig and his parents and brother when we were young and went to school together till high school graduation. After that we kind of moved in different circles and never saw each other much. But i have many fond memories of us working together on their farm bailing hay and many other things while we were young. His parents Glen and Carrol were always great and friendly. Always treated me like his brother. Still miss what we had then to this day. We put up thousands of small round bales. While i was paid to help them it was the memories that was the lasting payment. Rest in peace Craig

“ Craig was a very good friend. I had them pleasure working with him at Vaughn's and after hours we worked on Norris trucks. Few other older vehicles. Unfortunately I've not been able to hook up with him. Didn't know where he lived. He will be missed by many. Lot of good times! RIP buddy!
