“ It saddens me to learn of Dave's passing and my heartfelt sympathy goes to all who loved him. My oldest son, Cory, worked along side of Dave on Rex's farming operation and always so enjoyed their time together, reading books to Allison during their lunch break and getting to do what all three were gifted from God to do.....care for His land and His creatures. Doing it together made it even better.....May God draw near to comfort, strengthen and bring peace during this time and may precious memories bring smiles to your faces.
