“ We are sadden by the loss of Dorothy. The Blackwell family have been a neighbor and friend of ours for a long time. When Diane and I were married, Dorothy went the extra mile to make Diane feel welcome in the Barker community. She would always greet us with a warm smile and a heart felt greeting when we would visit Bob& kathy. Charles & Diane Hougland

“ Dorothy taught me so many things in the years that I was with her. She will always hold a special place in my heart. Thanking God today for placing this amazing women in life. For the many things she taught me. And that special way she made my children feel. She reassured me time and time again that God was in control. And truly can say that Dorothy was a true friend. I will always love you and miss you forever .

“ We had the great opportunity to be Dorothy's neighbor for about a year in the Hunts apartments. Wonderful lady and glad we got to be friends and neighbors, even for a short time. Jeremy & Rachael Wilcox
