“ Back in 1955, Jane and her Father, Mr. William Farris, became very prominent in my life. I was an orphan and had just been placed in a temporary home in Libertyville, Ia from the orphanage in Glenwood, Ia. Word was passed from Mr. Farris to his daughter, Jane asking if she knew of anyone that might be interested in the little guy in Libertyville. With Jane's kind and loving heart, she knew of a couple that might be interested. She passed the information to the couple named Noel and Wilma Jean Ritz. That little guy was adopted in 1958, after meeting them on Aug. 10th, 1955 and going home with them that night.

I have been blessed many times since, and the door to a New life was opened due to Jane's warm and Loving heart. I am forever Grateful for what Jane did in my life.

I would like to extend my heartfelt sympathy to Curtis Joe and Dennis and their families on the passing of their Mother and Grandmother.

Respectfully,

*Carl Ritz
