“ A couple months ago Ethan and I were at a neighbors house playing around. Ethan decided to take the governor off the go cart. He didn't notice that the throttle return spring wasn't attached anymore because it was under the air filter. He pulled the rope one time and that motor came to life, full throttle.. He could have let go but he didn't. I don't know how he held on to that rope or how the rope didn't break. He managed to steer that go cart away from vehicles, he couldn't stop it though. Once he made it to the yard he tried planting his feet. He started skiing in the grass. The rope was on the side so he made a giant circle. Right back towards the house. He missed a truck, the lawn mower, the dog. It was the stone bird bath and decorative chickens in the flower garden that stopped it. I know he was a little embarrassed but he stood the bird bath back up, the chickens. save a couple of the flowers. We all laughed about it for hours.. He laughed about it. He saw the humor in it. We could joke about anything, talk about anything.. I spent more time around Ethan this year than I ever have and I'm grateful for it. And I'm grateful knowing that He knew God and even though its hard, sad, a tragedy and we're all gonna miss him. I know it's just temporary.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the whole Rudd family. I didn't know Ethan, but I have known the Rudd family for many years. My mother was good friends with his grandma Angie. My brother Bob Willcoxson was a long-time friend of his uncle Harlan and I was in Derald and Gerald's class of 1965. May God comfort your loss.

“ We were heartbroken about Ethan's accident. Ethan was a gentle spirited person and so eager to do things right. It was a pleasure to deal with him and we will miss him on a personal level as well as at the shop. Our thoughts are with Ethan's wife and family, he was quite a guy and this is such a loss. You are in our prayers. John and Lori Davenport

“ This accident has hit me hard, I'm over 70 and a widow, and this young man became special to me. I am so sorry for your family's loss. He was always pleasant, kind, and went out of his way to help the people who came to 202 tire. I never got to plan ahead when troubles came, but that didn't matter to him. He was always ready and able to help me. He was also good at explaining things when I asked a question. I usually tried to give him a little extra money because he never expected it, and sometimes I had trouble getting him to take it. I am thankful to have known him, again I am so sorry this happened. May God Comfort your family. Both of our communities have lost a very fine man.

One of the kindest and most hilarious individuals I have ever met. I was honored to stand in as a groomsman for Elle and His wedding. When Elle and Ethan would come down to Florida to visit us on their Harley it was always a great time! We always had great conversations and memories together. Ethan was never afraid to speak his mind but he was also never afraid to lend a hand to anyone including a stranger. His friendship will be deeply missed. Our love and prayers are with the family during these trying times. We love you Ethan!
