“ I shared an office with Gene, 205 in the 8x6 Building of the Supersonic Propulsion Division at the Lewis Laboratory in Cleveland 1954-56 and the summer of 1957. I never worked with him, but I respected his opinions and consistent good humor and maturity. He was the role model for the younger fellows in that office and initially I was the youngest at 22. I was happy to find this site in the course of a search to see if I remembered the spelling of his last name his full first name/initial for my own memoirs . I often think of him and some of his always wise advice. My condolences to his family. Ken Kowalski, Professor Emeritus of Physics, CWRU.
