*Shively family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. I know that you are assured of her salvation and know that you will join her, Ronnie and our precious Lord Jesus for all eternity. What a immense blessing believers have when a loved one is called home, knowing that it is just a short time of separation. Know that many, many friends are praying that God brings you comfort, peace and strength. Carla Nalley Petersen*

“ I am so thankful that I was able to visit with you Rhonda and your mom that one last time along with Mama. It's so hard to lose the Mama of the family. It makes us all wonder where home is now. But we can be assured that Aunt Hazel is Home where I know she has wanted to be for a little while now. What a reunion she is having now. When you look down at her body, remember she is not there. At the graveside, remember that is just a place where her resurrected body will rise up to meet her spirit one day when God's trumpet sounds. I love you all. Thank you Rhonda for staying by her these many years and helping her through those very difficult ones.
