

Irene Laws

January 18, 2011

BLOOMFIELD: Hazel Irene Laws, 86, of Bloomfield, Iowa died January 18, 2011 at the Rio Grande Regional Hospital in McAllen, Texas. She was born April 4, 1924 in Corydon, Iowa to Samuel Jay and Hazel Leona Brown Darrah. She married Olin DeWayne Laws January 1, 1947 in Davenport, Iowa. Irene was a homemaker who lived in Iowa all her life, and in Davis County since 1961. She was a founding member of the Davis County Genealogy Society. She was instrumental in her husband's trucking company and traveled with him for years as he trucked across the country. Together they traveled to all the continental states except for one. She is survived by her husband; four daughters, Irina (Marvin) Lafrenz of Davenport, Iowa, Carol (Don) Sines and Terri (Louie) Miller both of Bloomfield, Christine (Jim) Fuller of Green Bay, Wisconsin; eight grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; an infant daughter, Debra Marie Laws; and a brother, Rex Darrah. Funeral services will be at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 25, 2011 at the Wagler Funeral Home in Bloomfield, Iowa with Pastor Richard Friend officiating. Burial will be at the Dunnville Cemetery in Davis County, Iowa. Visitation will begin after 9 a.m. on Monday with the family present to greet friends from 5-6:30 p.m. at the funeral home. Memorials have been established to the Davis County Genealogy Society and Friends of the Bloomfield Public Library.

Tribute Wall

“ Irene Laws

---

January 28, 2023 at 10:57 AM