

Jack Hopkins

February 12, 1942 - December 7, 2020

Jackie Devere Hopkins, 78, of Unionville, Iowa passed away at Oakwood Specialty Care in Albia, Iowa. He was born February 12, 1942 in Davis County, Iowa to Lawrence and Gessie Swaim Hopkins. At the age of 22, Jack joined the Army and served in Vietnam. When he returned from service, he met Judith Higbee while she was working at a local Dairy Queen. On July 2, 1970, Jack and Judy were married at the parsonage in Unionville, Iowa. The couple had three daughters.

Jack worked in many areas of construction over the years and was a crew member for the Rathbun Lake construction in the 1960's. In his free-time, he enjoyed riding Cushman Motorcycles, spending time with family and friends, and had a love for animals – especially his dogs.

He is survived by his wife, Judy of Unionville; three daughters, Jennifer (Gary) Hopkins of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, Jacqueline Hopkins of Unionville, Iowa, JoAnna Hopkins of Tracy, Iowa; grandson, Chaz Meth of Mt. Pleasant; and half-brother, Richard (Marjorie) Hopkins of Unionville, Iowa.

He was preceded in death by his parents and half-sister, Marie Canterbury.

Funeral services will be at 12:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 10, 2020 at the Wagler Funeral Home in Bloomfield with Rev. Leslie Dotson officiating.

Cremation will follow the service with burial of the cremated remains at the Taylor Cemetery in Appanoose County at a later date. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, no visitation is planned. Masks will be required to attend the funeral. A memorial has been established to his family.
