“ Our love is with you Carol and our hearts have broken. It was like going to grandpa and grandma's house when we visited. Jim would make coffee and Carol always had something baked. We loved sitting in you breakfast nook and talk about farming and life in general. As we continue to plant and harvest Jim will be in our thoughts. Prayers to all Jim's family

“ Sending all of you my deepest condolences. Carol and Jim were such a part of my growing up years. I will never forget the positive influence both of you made on my life as leaders of our youth group, friends of our family, and just the great example you set by the life you live. Deb and Jeff, so many memories of fun times growing up together! Please hug your Mom tight for me. I will miss Jim's ornery laugh and his beautiful singing voice. He lives forever in the hearts of those who loved him so.

“ Carol, Deb, Jeff and family, please accept our sincere condolences on your loss. Jim was a very good man, and I will always cherish many wonderful memories of the great times we spent together. Especially the bus trips to Winter Camp. He was a positive influence during my teenage years when he was youth group counselor.
