“ My earliest memories of uncle Jim was of him pulling hay bales on a palet behind a tractor. RD and I were sitting on the bales. He would stop and pick up more bales and we would sit higher. I always thought he was doing this to thrill us like a carnival ride. It was years before I understood he was doing chores and watching RD and me at the same time. He also made us the best hot cocoa and fudge! I also liked the way he and Billy Paul would rib granny and she would play like she was so riled at them. They would keep that going for a long time while everyone else would laugh! I am glad he left his collie dog Buddy with granny because that dog always went with us wherever we explored even found the cows to bring back to milk! I am happy he is now with aunt Carol even though he is loved and missed by all of us!
