

Jane Stevenson

August 15, 1943 - November 22, 2021

Jane Ellen Stevenson, 78, of Bloomfield, Iowa passed away on November 22, 2021 at the Davis County Hospital. She was born on August 15, 1943 in Ottumwa, Iowa to Curtis Jennings and Phyllis Madelene Foster Fresh. She married Charles Spargur in 1963, they later divorced. She married Dr. Braden Stevenson, they later divorced. She was a long-time partner with Bruce Bogle until his death in 2007.

Jane worked at the Gilfillan Clinic for many years, owned the Clothesline shop on the Bloomfield Square, worked for Bruce's Furniture, and worked at Hy-Vee Pharmacy. She enjoyed gardening and growing flowers; doing crossword puzzles; traveling with family; and reading. She loved spending time with her three granddaughters.

She is survived by her son, Tony (Jennifer) Spargur of Bloomfield; three granddaughters, Sydney Spargur, Sophie Spargur, Sadie Spargur; and two sisters, Judy (Denny) O'Hara of West Des Moines, Sally Lindstrom of Des Moines.

She was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Debra Spargur; and brother, Joe Dean Fresh.

Jane's wish was to be cremated. A visitation will be held at a later date.

“ Jane was a down to earth very nice lady. I knew her through the Gilfillan Clinic, her Shop and her son Tony which was also to hang with. I also knew her as I grew up as a very young kid. She was always just a nice person when you spoke with her.

Noted> And what can you say about Bruce, also a great guy to be around..

Sorry for your loss.

Jane was a special person. From being a library patron that always made me smile, to cheering on her granddaughters in sports (and we would compare notes later), to waiting on me in the pharmacy, she could always make me smile with her dry sense of humor. Prayers and thoughts to all.
