

Judith Coffman

September 4, 1943 - October 31, 2021

Judith A. Coffman, 78, of Milton, Iowa passed away on October 31, 2021 at the Hospice House in West Burlington, Iowa. She was born on September 4, 1943 in Centerville, Iowa to Frank Audrey and Leona Irene Chance Woolsey. She married Sam Coffman on June 19, 1982. Judith owned many rental properties in Centerville years ago and also helped Sam with farm chores. She enjoyed raising farm animals and farm cats. For several years, Judith and Sam traveled the country together while Sam was driving a semi. The two have been just about everywhere together. Her company in life and on the road will be greatly missed by Sam.

She is survived by her husband, Sam; step-children, Lynn Reid of Callao, Missouri, Troy Coffman of Dallas, Texas; three grandchildren, Faith (Cody) Roth of Macon, Missouri, Cash Reed of Callao, Missouri, Brandon (Kelley) Smith of Granite Falls, North Carolina; two great-grandchildren, Morgan Smith and Graham Smith; two sisters, Wilma Wilson of Centerville, Iowa, Peggy Micetich of Lineville, Iowa; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Katrina Smith; son, Todd Smith; three brothers, Howard, Harold, and Floyd Woolsey; a sister, Mary Woolsey; and two step-brothers, Clifford and Lavern Davis.

Judith's wish was to be cremated and services are not currently planned. Card of condolences may be mailed to: Sam Coffman, 101 W. Hwy 2, Milton, Iowa

“ My best memory of aunt Judy was when I would see her on the Centerville square in her red Corvette. She was such a pretty woman and very kind. At one time she had two Siamese cats who would have nothing to do with anyone but her. I never got to know her well as I moved away from Iowa years ago but I will miss her very much. My condolences to Sam and all her loved ones. Brenda Brooks
