“ We were best buddies growing up as we were the two oldest of four girls. We often did things together which sometimes got us both 'in trouble'. We sang in choir at church, worked at local A&W root beer stand. She always could help me out with spelling and pronouncing words. Although time, careers, families and distance separated us, we always remained close. Prayers and love to Dan and Danny.

“ She was a wonderful sister, playing Crazy 8s and badminton when we were young. And she never lost her sense of humor. Rest in peace, love you forever.

“ Our hearts ache with the loss of a lady and neighbor who was always on the go. From mowing yards, raising a garden, or busy during lambing season, taking care of her guys, that was Judy. Prayers and deepest sympathy to family, and for sure Dan and Danny Lee.
