“ Hi.. My Name is Leslie Dawn Perry. I am Marlin Perry's Daughter. Granddaughter to Les Perry.. My Pampa.. I was named after both of my grandpa's. Lester is where my mom got Leslie. Donald is where my mom got Dawn. My Pampa was my best friend, my protector, one person I never felt afraid of and a complete connection with him. He was one person I never wanted to lose... The last time I saw my grandpa, I sobbed in his arms asking for him to help me know what to do.. I've been going thru so much.. I told him how much I needed him and how much I missed him.. he told me to pray.. I'm not gonna lie, I knew that was the last time I was gonna see him.. I could feel it.. My heart was shattering... I found out yesterday he passed away... it didn't make it any easier knowing but I've been saying to my mom the last 2 years, he's gonna go when nobody knows and it's sooner than anyone thinks... it kept stirring inside me.. I miss him so much.. I so wasn't ready for him to leave yet... one last hug and kiss.. one last I love you.. one last "Keep your head up kid".. one more time where he held my hand and made it to where I didn't wanna let go.. I know he's in a better place but I wish I would've went to see him more..... :(:(:(

“ I visited with Les every morning at the coffee shop on my way to work. He was the sweetest man who always made me smile. I am so thankful for having gotten the chance to get to know him over the months at the coffee shop. I will miss him so very much. It was hard going to get my coffee today knowing he wouldn't be there and seeing his spot empty. My deepest sympathies to his family. Crystal Davidson

“ Les to us was not only a relative, but a very dear friend. We always enjoyed sharing breakfast of homemade biscuits and sausage gravy when we come to visit. Will certainly miss his singing, his sense of humor. A good christian man that will be missed by us all. Love this family dearly. From Tennessee, Rev. Dwight and Mary Johnson

“ Before I retired, Lester would try to come to me at work because he always wanted to know how our family was and I treated with him with respect. His attitude was positive and his smile was infectious. Regardless of his physical issues he was not bitter. We could all take a lesson. Lester, we will miss you but we WILL see you in Glory some day. Ardell and Gary French
