“ *On Dec. 26 the world lost a great man, a wonderful person, and a true cowboy. It was one of life's greatest privileges to call him my friend. Lewis embraced me and showed me the way when I first began in the sport of rodeo. He was truly humble. He knew a lot more about rodeo, horses, roping, and the overall cowboy way then he let on.
I remember hauling with "Lewie" and Ira Hartwick to rodeos. I rode Broncs. They roped.
I got kicked in the jaw by a bronc after a ride in Gilbert Iowa. My jaw was swollen profusely. On our way to Knoxville for a URA show, Lewi and Ira stopped at a steakhouse in Des Moines. They had big juicy steaks. They only thing I could eat was a little boat of breaded mushrooms. The only thing I could chew Lol!!! I never seen Lewi laugh so hard. To one Great Hand and a Great Cowboy, I'll miss you my friend.
Our thoughts and prayers to all the Horn family.*
