“ Margery was a most caring and loyal person who supported her younger siblings back in Wales after she emigrated to the USA. My mother was Margery's younger sister - Margaret Millard and she would often tell me about the kind acts of her older sister. As a child in the early 1970s I recall the packages of sweets and toys that 'Aunty Margie' would send regularly with letters full of interesting stories and questions that showed a genuine interest in your life. I am sad to hear she has now passed but hope that she has found peace. With love and many fond memories Sian Millard (niece).
