“ I will always remember working with marge at casey's, we sure had alot of fun. I was treated like family. The way she always patted the buns before she wrapped them up. She was always good to the customers, and talked to them when they came in.

She was fun to work with at Casey's. She was nice to customers and knew most by name.

“ My favorite memories of my Grandma always fall back to Christmas Eve dinner. We would have to eat before we could unwrap our presents, and every year she would tell us kids that we had to wash the paper plates before we could touch any of the gifts. And no one could out cook her! I've used her recipes, and it never tastes the same.
