“ Sorry to hear of the passing of our cousin Olen. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time. His mother and my mother were sisters so we were first cousins. Remember seeing him last year at the Arnold family Reunion in Bloomfield. You will continue to be in our prayers. S. Dwight and Mary Johnson, Crossville, Tennessee .

“ This sounds crazy, but I remember every time I seen Uncle Olen growing up, he always wanted to pop my toes. Why he did that, I don't know. But now every time I get a cramp in my toe I think of him. He was a good man full of happiness. He always had a smile on his face and loved to visit. Rest in peace..
