“ Aunt Phyllis was good to me when I was a little girl. She and I exchanged letters, recipes, and sometimes homemade gifts. She was so excited when I went to college and want to hear all about my courses, especially history, and campus life in general -- and she would tell me what college was like for her in the different university towns in which she had lived.

I recall silly things, like in one recipe she wrote in bold print "Leave the onions in large slices so Robert can easily pick them out". She had funny stories and would laugh or say GAWWWD!!

Although family gatherings could be uncomfortable for her, she came to my grandfather's 80th birthday party and smiled for the family photo. I appreciated that she came; I know it wasn't easy.

I bless you Phyllis now and always. I trust you are in a beautiful, nurturing, joyful, peaceful place.

 Love, Lynn

I have that recipe! She called it "tamale pie a la Robert Buchwald."
