

Reggie Guiter

March 17, 2007

BLOOMFIELD. REGGIE M. GUITER, age 64 of Bloomfield died March 17, 2007 at the Davis County Hospital in Bloomfield. He was born May 11, 1942 in Ottumwa, Iowa to Kenneth Vernon and Dorothy Irene Miller Guiter. He married Veronica Bolick November 11, 1962 in Bloomfield. He married Cindy Stockham August 1979 in Bloomfield. He married Sue Hendricks August 26, 1987 in Durango, Colorado. A resident of Bloomfield most of his life, Reggie retired from John Deere Ottumwa Works in December 2000. Reggie and his best friend, wife Sue, enjoyed vacationing in the mountains, car races and building their '39 Chevy Sedan. Throughout his life Reggie's passion was building street rods, one of which was a 1951 Chevy pickup that was a high school graduation present for his son Zach. In recent months, his newest interest was building a Rat Rod, which he left for the completion and enjoyment of his son Mike. He was a member of the United Auto Workers. He is survived by his wife, Sue Guiter of Bloomfield; 2 sons Michael (Sherri) Guiter and Zachary Guiter both of Bloomfield; 2 grandchildren Camile Diana and Clay Michael Guiter; a sister Shirley (Mike) Burgmeier of Pinion Hills, California and a special cousin who was like a brother Tom (Pat) Roach of Bloomfield. He was preceded in death by his parents; stepfather Warren Scarborough and a son Charles Lee Guiter. Memorial services will be at 10:30 am Friday March 23, 2007 at the Wagler Funeral Home in Bloomfield, Iowa with Pastor Kevin Gingerich officiating. Burial of cremains will be in the IOOF Cemetery in Bloomfield, Iowa. The family will be at the Wagler Funeral Home in Bloomfield, Iowa from 6:00-8:00 pm Thursday to greet friends. A memorial has been established to his family.

Tribute Wall

“ Reggie Guiter

---

January 28, 2023 at 10:57 AM