“ *Joanne, Randy, and Ron,
I really do not have enough space to express what your family meant to us. We literally grew up together. Only a few feet of a narrow street separating us. Bob and Joanne were second parents and the boys, well, our brothers. As a bowhunter and outdoorsman Bob was an icon to me. He was really very humble about all he knew. When he spoke, I listened. Joanne your one of the sweetest ladies I've ever known. May you accept our deepest sympathy at this time of loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. When I walk to my stand on a starry autumn morning with a recurve in tow, I'll always think of you Bob.*
