

Russell Stewart

October 13, 1951 - August 5, 2024

Russell Joseph Stewart, 73, of Bloomfield, Iowa passed away on August 5, 2024 at his home. He was a beloved husband, father, and friend to many and he will be missed by all who knew him.

He was born on October 13, 1951 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to Harold and Jayne Robertson Stewart. Russell loved his children dearly as-well-as camping with friends and family, fishing, and the Pittsburg Steelers!

Russell is survived by his loving wife, Mildred Pearson-Stewart; children, Kellie Jean (Damian) Shipley, Elizabeth Driggers, April (Dereck) Hormann, Alissa (Stephen) Fisher; sister, Patsy Stewart; grandchildren, Kaia Shipley, Troy Shipley, Makenzi Driggers, Robert Driggers III, Shelby (Jordan) Leonard, Nick Hormann, Dylan Hormann, Austin Porter, Bethaney Porter; and nieces, Cassie Stewart and Abby (Tony) Stewart.

Russell was a simple man who really wanted no fuss made, therefore he chose to be cremated and have no visitation or service. He did wish, in lieu of flowers, for donations to be made to the Mutchler Center in Bloomfield. Wagler Funeral Home in Bloomfield is handling arrangements.

“ Russell wasn't just an uncle, but a friend as well. I cherish my relationship with him in my childhood and in my adult years and will never forget feeling so comfortable just sitting around talking about nothing and everything all at once. I'll never forget his smile, that little smirk and twinkle in his eyes that held more than he was saying out loud. I will miss having his presence in my life but will always remember his care, his love, and his realness. I love you so much, Uncle Russell, and will always keep you in my heart.

“ Russell was the best brother anyone could have. He was funny, smart, and caring, and a terrific uncle to my daughters and adored father and grandfather to Kellie and Jackie. Russell faced his final months with courage and selflessness, with his loving wonderful wife Mildred at his side, as well as his extended family and so many friends.

Although I'm so sad he's gone, as we all are, I'm comforted by his faith that he would soon see our Mother and Daddy in heaven. I know he's in good hands for this next phase of his life. I miss you Bro - and look forward to being with you again.

Russell was one of a kind. He would tie my shoelaces together at the Mutchler center and usually blamed someone else. I missed him when he retired. My thoughts are with his family and friends.
