“ To a wonderful man,
Eyes of kindness and a special warm smile that was saved for only the certain people. So many dreams, goals, and adventures that never had a chance to flourish. Life is so precious. Don't let a day pass without living it to the fullest.
XOXO

“ Ok..Sean I have totally started and stopped a hundred times on this..US cousins are a pretty cool and unique group..close in age and grew up side by side..there is not a memory that the boys weren't bugging us girls or we all decided to be partners in a crime. Your best days of life I have decided always were at Gpa and Gmas growing up and thankful we were there a lot!! Back bedroom ruff house shit or outside playing in the dark..petting Santa's beard.. all the Easter egg hunts..older drinking a beer and deviled egg contests...we are a special group..crazy and fun, but so much love that might of went unsaid..I love you cuz...until we met again

“ I got to know Sean while we were working out at the Mutchler center. he was a polite, respectful and hardworking young man. Our kids knew him from the time they spent at Pam's their wonderful babysitter. Later he did some brick and mortar work on our house. He did a great job explaining what we should have him do. Then he did an excellent job doing it. He and his family are in our thoughts!!
