Sherrell Lee Stigler, 72, of Maxwell, Iowa passed away peacefully with her family by her side on December 9, 2015 at the Fleur Heights Care Center in Des Moines. She was born on her family farm in Moulton, Iowa to Wray Puffer and Ona Martin Bassett on June 23, 1943. Sherrell made her way to Des Moines after graduation from Davis County High School in 1961 with merely a bus ticket and suitcase. She found her way to Maxwell where she successfully raised four daughters. She instilled an independent yet loving demeanor in her girls. She was so proud of Lorie, Lisa, LaDonna, and Stacy. Sherrell impacted many lives in Maxwell through her work as bookkeeper at Senior Housing, the friendly smile at Maxwell State Bank, and was instrumental in the conception and construction of the Maxwell Community Center. She took pride in making her community a better place. Sherrell enjoyed sewing, dancing, and was a big Elvis Presley fan.

Sherrell was known for her love and dedication to her children and grandchildren. Attending her granddaughters' dance recitals were highlights of her later years. Her memory will be forever in their hearts.

(Jesse Palmer) Mestdagh, Knowlton Mens, Austin Mens, Morgan Fulton, Samantha Pagel, Charlee Fulton; two great-grandchildren, Hadley Rathbun, "Baby" Palmer; two sisters, Beverly (James) Andrews, Karen Harris; and a brother, Martin (Stephanie) Bassett.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time of grieving. Sherry always had so much energy and was so passionate about the things she believed in. Boy oh boy, did she ever love her grandkids... I'll never forget how excited she was for Christmas and Harry Potter! She will be missed.

“ Marty, so sorry to hear of your sisters passing. I didn't know Sherrell but your Mom mentioned her frequently. She sure looks like Ona. So many memories of time passed.

“ We are so very sorry to hear of Sherry's passing. Bless her heart, she has had quite a battle with her health.

We had such a good time back in the day of Jaycee and Jaycee-ettes. Sherry and I judged a baby contest one time in Colfax, I still have the necklace they gave us for helping.

May eternal rest grant unto my friend Sherry and eternal light shine upon her.

Our Love and Prayers,
