Tribute Wall

“ Steve Park

January 28, 2023 at 10:57 AM

“ I met Steve, like many people did, through the dirt track racing world.....I was 'one of those Missouri boys' and he was 'one of the Ford boys' from Iowa.... We crossed paths many times over the years as I tried to knock the wall down everywhere I raced and Steve worked to build and maintain cars he supported at the local tracks. When I put on the race track promoting hat, Steve was there to lend an ear, a helping hand, or whatever was needed to keep the Bloomfield Speedway going. I knew when we needed anything Steve was certainly one of the top people I could call. If he did not instantly have a solution....it was only a matter of time before he made the calls to the right people to get things moving and get the right resources and people on the problem. Prayers for Dianne and all of Steve's family and friends. Steve will be certainly be missed. Rest in Peace Steve.

“ Steve was a great Son, Brother, Cousin, Uncle, Husband, Dad, Grandpa, Friend, Neighbor, and anything else he could've been. It's hard to imagine this neighborhood without him because Dianne and Steve have been here about as long as We have. I still remember the day Steve and Dianne asked me to babysit Laura, and later Lacey, as well. My boys didn't have any sisters, but they had Laura and Lacey, and they were the closest things to sisters they would ever have. They had two of the best parents that we ever had as daycare parents. Lots of Great Memories....wish there were more! Love You All!!! Hugs!!!

“ Steve Park was one of my closest friends. He would take my wildest ideas and give them a dose of reality as only a left handed engineer could. He was the guy I could call and say "come out here and look at this and give me an opinion". He could take one look at something I had beat my brains out on for hours and say "move this pin and shorten this rod and it will work". And guess what..it did. Without Steve there would not be a race track in Bloomfield. The guy I met for the first time at community meeting to gather support for one of my "wild ideas" to rebuild the track took charge and with his expertise and get it done attitude not only did the track get built but I gained a friend for life. The friend that I could confide in with any personal, family or buisness issue I had. I wish I could share this on Monday but it's all I can do to write this. My heart goes out to Dianne and the girls on their unthinkable loss. Dan Hutchings
