“ Steve,
You will be dearly missed my friend. I remember the times we used to spend together on your folks farm with you and your sisters, not to mention all the other times we spent together. You were a good one "hoss". May God keep you and your family.

“ Steve attended bible studies on Sunday evenings at Grace Pointe Church of the Nazarene. He was very interested in learning more about God. He was friendly, a talker, and knew everyone, it seemed. On one occasion, he used a trap and captured a mother cat and her babies from under a shed so homes could be found for them. He enjoyed good conversation and a good meal. In one conversation, he said that his heart was right with God. Im glad he is in no more pain and is with his heavenly Father.

Steve was quite a character. Had a lot of fun times together when younger. Had a lot of good talks. He had stopped by several times the last 3 years just to chat. Going to miss that. Rest In Peace Friend.

Steve (Fuzz) it has been a few years since I have seen him. He was one classmate I will always remember. He never knew a stranger and would talk about anything and everything. Rest in Peace Steve.

So sorry for your loss. I saw Steve at Dad's (Dwight Lawson) visitation in March and we talked for quite a while. He was the same Steve I remembered from childhood. Thinking of you all.
