Todd B. Fisk, 64, of Bloomfield, Iowa passed away at MercyOne Medical Center in Des Moines on Thursday, August 9, 2023 after a recent heart surgery.

Todd was born on June 9, 1959 to Donald “Bill” and Mary Maxine (Smith) Fisk. On June 16, 1978 he married Kristie Alison Leon. They had three children together; Kylee Miller (Evan) of Bloomfield, Iowa, Skyler Fisk of Orlando, Florida, and Kalan Fisk (Tabby) of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. “ Where to start?? Toby and I shared the trailer he and Donnie Bill had when we were in high school back in the day.....think it was around 1978 we lived together. I think around the time we were 16 or so (still in school) Toby called Donnie Bill from Mr. Gentries office (DC high school) and told him I was movin' in!! LOL Donnie said nope.....he aint sleepin' on my couch! Some of you reading this will remember times in that old trailer.....we'll leave those stories to the past. :) We paid Donnie Bill $25 dollars a month for rent....split it between the two of us at $12.50 each per month..big bucks back then! Toby rode an old 1959 HD panhead chopper back then, called it Lerch. Old Lerch had a front end longer than Jimmy Durantes nose! One of the coolest bikes I think I've ever been on. Rough damn riding thing but dog gonnit.....we was cool!! Fringed jackets and all!! Rode several times in high school with Toby in the old Cadillacs he had. Used to go out to lake Fisher and try to burn the tires on the dirt roads.....don't even ask why. Again.....:). Spent more than one morning in those old caddies before school visiting. And I guarantee ya.....Cheech and Chong got nuttin' on us!! Again....don't ask.....:) And more than one day just plain damn enjoying his company and laughing. As I sit here.....I wonder why I didn't take the time to spend more with Fitzy.....Toby.....if you're reading this...I love ya.....always have always will..and I wish I had taken the time to spend more with ya! Love ya.....Cap
