“ Dick Dunlavy was my bus driver when I was a kid. He was one of the best drivers around, putting up with us, a bunch of smart alec monkeys, and always having a quip to respond to our queries. I remember one time he was commenting on our longish hair styles, back in the Beatles era..... Dick told me, " you can't have hair and brains at the same time...".... I always chuckle at that line..

“ He was the greatest Brother-in-law ever. Never complained when he and Violet had to take me along on their dates because Mom insisted they needed a chaperone. Must have done a good job as they were married all those wonderful years. God Bless you, Dick. You are free at last and in His arms.

“ Dick was a very kind man. He drove many of my preschool students to the classroom by the pool. He was always so pleasant and he cared about each student who rode his bus. He was a definite asset to our school district.

Violet and family this is the time to share all the good times you have had with Dick. Spent many trips to Ottumwa after we younger boys pooled our money for A&W root beer, it was passed around until the jug was empty. We also spent many hours following his coon hounds and bailing hay for Bill Cree and Roy Hunt and others in the area. Violet I wish I could be with you at this time but I am having some health problems at this time but I know our Farther in Heaven is with you I know for sure. I have thought of you great people many times..
